FACTORS AFFECTING INDUSTRIAL LOCATION

A Bibliography

Selected references relating to taxes and other factors affecting the choice of location by industry.

TAX FOUNDATION, Inc.
New York, N. Y.
December 1956
GENERAL

Books and Monographs

Articles in Periodicals

Coates, James O. Building a community that will attract industry; a realistic specific program for getting new industries to move to your town. Michigan Business Review, School of Business Administration, University of Michigan, May 1956, pp. 21-25.

Effect of local taxes on location of industry. American City, November 1949, p. 121.

Garwood, J. D. Are municipal subsidies for industrial location sound? The background in brief; state law provisions; the present status; the pros and cons. American City, May 1953, pp. 110-111.

Garwood, J. D. Taxes and industrial location. (Contends that the tax structure of a community has little to do with the orientation of industry to that community.) National Tax Journal, December 1952, pp. 365-369.

Kuhne, Norman. Towns are sold from the ground up. Nation's Business, August 1949, pp. 42-44+.

More tax-exempt plants: Louisiana joins the states permitting municipalities to lure industry by building factories paid for by local bonds; but the idea is meeting heavy opposition, notably from bankers. Business Week, November 22, 1952, p. 148+.

Parry, Grant. What industry looks for in a municipality. (How management proceeds in selecting a new factory location.) New Jersey Municipalities, New Jersey State League of Municipalities, Trenton, May 1956, pp. 29-32.

Reid, Thomas R. Why business is increasingly concerned with the operation of local government. American City, January 1953, p. 91.

Should you move your plant? Business Week, September 17, 1949, pp. 70-72.

The right spot to settle down: companies are hunting new plant sites. Business Week, July 24, 1954, p. 130+.

What industry expects of a community. American City, September 1948, p. 133.

When low taxes repelled an industry. American City, August 1950, p. 5.

Williams, S. B. The town in which we want to build a plant. American City, June 1950, p. 131+.

Wood, R. Where to put your plant. Fortune, July 1956, pp. 100-104+.

STATES AND TERRITORIES

Arkansas

California

Florida

Larsen, W. F. Local government services and industrial development in Florida. Florida Municipal Record, Jacksonville, March 1953, p. 13+

Kentucky

Louisiana

Louisiana's 10-Year Tax Exemption for Manufacturers. Louisiana Department of Commerce and Industry, Baton Rouge, n.d.

Ross, W. D. Louisiana's industrial tax exemption program. Louisiana Business Bulletin, Division of Research, College of Commerce, Louisiana State University, December 1953.

Maryland

State Planning Commission. Location Factors In Establishing New Manufacturing Firms in Maryland. Publication no. 69, Baltimore, 1951.

Michigan

High taxes threaten Michigan job security; state's "industrial climate" is becoming unhealthy because of big increase in business taxation. Inside Michigan, Detroit, October 1953, pp. 16-20.

Minnesota

New Jersey

New York

Ohio

Redman, Albert E. Report of Study on Special Inducements to Influence Plant Location. Ohio Chamber of Commerce, Industrial Development Department, Columbus, 1952.

Oklahoma

Pennsylvania

Puerto Rico

Rhode Island

Tennessee

Texas

Utah

West Virginia

REGIONS

New England

Northwest

South

Allen, F. L. How far along is industrial development of the South? Iron Age, November 12, 1953, pp. 198-9.
